

Thomas Jefferson biography study notes

Note-taking: Make notes of what you think are important. Write down details of events and incidents that you feel are important to the growth and development Thomas Jefferson. Make notes of significant happenings in his life; not only what he did, but other things which affected him. The questions in each section are to be used as a guideline. Please make notes of other details you feel are important. Be sure to write down page numbers from pages where you take notes.

Title
Author
Place of Publication	Publisher	Year	Pages
Childhood: Where is he born? Who are his parents? Where did he grow up? How was he schooled? What significant events happened in his childhood? Who were the influences on him? Who were his friends? What did he like to do? How did he spend his time?
Teenage and college years: What was the family business? Did he have to help with that? Did he go to college? If so, where? What did he study? How did he spend his time? What beliefs did he develop? What significant events happened to him or around him during this time?

Adulthood: Did he marry and if so, who? What type of family did he have? Where did he live? How did he support his family? What was happening around him during this time?

Political Life: What role did Jefferson play in politics? What are the offices he held? What events were happening to him and around him during this time? What did he do that affected future generations of America? What “historical” events were he involved with during this time?

Other significant details: Make note of anything else you think might be important.